

Report Alleged Copyright Infringement

U2 Group takes the protection of intellectual property very seriously. If you believe that any content available through our platform—including architectural designs, images, descriptions, or related materials—has been used or distributed in a manner that constitutes copyright infringement, please notify us immediately.

Our policies comply with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) and other applicable international copyright laws.

What We Do

Upon receiving a valid copyright infringement notice, U2 Group may take one or more of the following actions:

- Temporarily or permanently remove or disable access to the allegedly infringing content
 - Notify the content owner or associated user with the details of the complaint
 - Suspend or terminate user access for repeated or egregious violations
 - Maintain a record of the report, and share the notice with third-party transparency databases, such as Lumen

Important Legal Notice

Before submitting a copyright infringement complaint, be aware:

- Submitting a false or misleading claim can result in legal liability, including damages and attorney's fees.

- You are legally required to evaluate possible fair use exceptions, licenses, or defenses before making a claim.
 - If you are unsure whether a use is infringing, we recommend consulting a qualified attorney before proceeding.

How to File a Copyright Complaint

To file a claim with U2 Group, your written notice must include the following information:

1. A physical or electronic signature of the copyright owner (or authorized agent)
 2. Identification of the work(s) allegedly infringed (e.g., plan title, design name, project number)
 3. A clear description or direct link to the infringing content
 4. Your contact information (name, email, phone, address)
 5. A statement that you have a good faith belief that the use is not authorized
 6. A statement under penalty of perjury that the information in the notice is accurate and that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on their behalf

Submit your notice to:

Email: legal@u2.group

Subject Line: Copyright Infringement Report

Optional Physical Address: [to be provided if required]

Counter Notification Process

If you are a U2 Group user and you believe content was removed in error, you may file a counter notification in accordance with applicable law. Instructions will be provided in the removal notice, or you can contact us directly at legal@u2.group.

International Scope

U2 Group's content is protected globally under:

- Colombian copyright law
- U.S. DMCA
- The Berne Convention
- The WIPO Copyright Treaty (WCT)
- The TRIPS Agreement
- Other national and supranational legislation across 180+ member countries

By using U2 Group, you agree to respect the intellectual property of our company and our collaborators.
